Subject: ATLANTIS AND OTHER EVIL SUBMERGED CIVILIZATIONS AND PYRAMIDS RISING

With all the evil happening in the world this report is very relevant to today's news and things happening around the world. From the creation of the Earth until now God has been watching large civilizations rise and fall continuously. A good example to help explain this to you is what is happening now in the USA as it crumbles and falls because people have turned away from God who helped raise up the nation to be the leader in the world, but what did the USA do? It got arrogant and haughty and began to become more evil as a nation, and in addition to becoming more evil itself, it began to export this evil to the rest of the world. Just as it has happened before God will judge the nation and bring the entire nation to its knees. In many ancient civilizations not only did God judge the nation or "city states in many cases" but wiped its memory off the planet until the end times when the pure raw evil imprisoned in these sunken nations and city states rise to the surface and release a new abundance of pure evil upon the world.

Here is a list of significant sunken cities which have imprisoned evil within them (this is not a complete list, it is just some of the more well known sunken cities):

1 SUNKEN CITIES OFF THE COASTS OF EUROPE:

1.1 Pavlopetri, also called Paulopetri:

- 1.1.1 Location: It is a submerged ancient town, located between the islet of Pavlopetri and the Pounta coast of Laconia, on the Peloponnese peninsula in southern Greece.
- 1.1.2 Depth: It is about 20 feet underwater.
- 1.1.3 fallen angel uses of the city: It was a party town and sacrifice town.
- 1.1.4 Human uses of the city: Ceramics recovered in situ confirms that Pavlopetri had Mycenaean occupation, but further archaeological evidence suggests that the town was occupied as early as 3500 BC.
- 1.1.5 History of the sinking: Geologists theorise that the submergence of the town was the result of local and regional faulting of the Cretan Arc (an arcuate mountain chain of the southern Aegean Sea), that led to the convergence and subduction of the tectonic plate causing the town to drop beneath the sea level. (fallen angel records show that the city was sunk at the most important time during a sacrifice ritual)

1.2 Atlantis

- 1.2.1 Location: Atlantis Just off the west coast of Cyprus according to records. It is about 5000 yards off the west coast of Cyprus.
- 1.2.2 Depth: about 2000 feet.
- 1.2.3 Fallen angel uses for the city: regional command center and temple grounds as well as a genetic research area in the effort to make a human being without a soul so that God would have to let lucifer have his way about defeating the plan of salvation. (NOTE: THIS TOPIC IS OF SUCH IMPORTANCE THAT THERE WILL BE ANOTHER REPORT SHORTLY REGARDING MORE DETAILS ABOUT THIS EFFORT).
- 1.2.4 Human uses for the city: Likely one of the better known sunken cities because of what it stands for and how none of the other countries around it were able to conquer it and when it was forced underwater no one could go down and touch the treasures which are still buried with the underwater city. Atlantis is known for the people of the “golden skin” and wild parties which the hybrids and fallen angels loved to attend.

- 1.2.5 History of the sinking: This is the most likely reason God sank the city at its peak of civilization when all was “perfect” and no one from the outside could conquer it. Fallen angel history speaks of multiple cities like this as well scattered around the globe.

1.3 Canary 1 also referred to as Atlantis 2 by the fallen angels.

- 1.3.1 location: just in the center of the canary island ring of islands.
- 1.3.2 Depth: 9000 feet
- 1.3.3 Fallen angel uses for the city: regional command center and temple grounds.
- 1.3.4 Human uses for the city: This city/region was a tinsel town for humans as well.
- 1.3.5 History of the sinking: This sunken city collapsed into the ocean at the height of a massive halloween party at the stroke of midnight according to records obtained. There was a quake and volcanic activity which destroyed the connection which several of the canary islands had until that time. This find is still being documented.

1.4 Baia:

- 1.4.1 Location: Baiae, Italian Baia, ancient city of Campania, Italy, located on the west coast of the Gulf of Puteoli (Pozzuoli) and lying 10 miles (16 km) west of Naples and 21/2 miles (4 km) from Cumae, of which it was a dependency. According to tradition, Baiae was named after Baios, the helmsman of Ulysses.
- 1.4.2 Depth: 15 to 45 feet.
- 1.4.3 Fallen angel uses for the city: encouraging humans to be utterly corrupt.
- 1.4.4 human uses for the city: Another once wicked city submerged underwater. This time it was not pirates that were wicked, but hedonistic “Romans that flocked to Baia, dubbed the Las Vegas of ancient Rome, some 18 miles outside of Naples on the Mediterranean coast. Alas, as seems to happen with wicked cities, it sank. Most likely due to the region’s rather active volcanic activities. The 2,000-year-old remains are in superb condition with many intact statues found, together with houses and temples. Most of the city lies at a depth of fewer than 20 feet, and some of it even visible above water. The archaeological park can be explored by donning a snorkel.
- 1.4.5 how it sank: Alas, as seems to happen with wicked cities, it sank. Most likely due to the region’s rather active volcanic activities.

1.5 Thonis-Heracleion

- 1.5.1 location: Thonis-Heracleion was an ancient Egyptian port city located near the Canopic Mouth of the Nile, about 32 km (20 mi) northeast of Alexandria on the Mediterranean Sea.[2] It became inundated and its remains are located in Abu Qir Bay, currently 2.5 km (1.6 mi) off the coast
- 1.5.2 Depth: 30 feet
- 1.5.3 fallen angel uses for the city: for having rituals and corrupting humans
- 1.5.4 Human uses for the city: Long lost Alexandria has just as many legends and mysteries spun around it as Atlantis, but this one is real. And it has been found. And there are two sunken cities for the price of one. Alexandria’s remains lie literally a few feet off the coast, while Thonis-Heracleion rests a little farther off the coast of today’s Alexandria. Both spectacularly well-preserved, considering the ruins are more than 2,000 years old and littered with various shipwrecks, dropped anchors, even lost—and found—old treasures.

1.5.5 how it sank: The records show that during a great ritual an earthquake and tsunami crashed into the city and sank it.

1.6 Alexandria

1.6.1 location: Egypt Alexandria's remains lie literally a few feet off the coast.

1.6.2 Depth: 30 feet

1.6.3 fallen angel uses for the city: for having rituals and corrupting humans

1.6.4 Human uses for the city: Long lost Alexandria has just as many legends and mysteries spun around it as Atlantis, but this one is real. And it has been found. And there are two sunken cities for the price of one. Alexandria's remains lie literally a few feet off the coast, while Thonis-Heracleion rests a little farther off the coast of today's Alexandria. Both spectacularly well-preserved, considering the ruins are more than 2,000 years old and littered with various shipwrecks, dropped anchors, even lost—and found—gold treasures.

1.6.5 how it sank: The records show that during a great ritual an earthquake and tsunami crashed into the city and sank it.

2 Sunken continent in the Indian ocean

2.1 Lemuria- Lemuria was a continent that was believed to have once connected India, Australia and Southern Africa, which scientists tried to debunk as a fairytale. Fast forward to 2013. Any scientific theories of a lost continent and land bridge responsible for the migration of lemurs is gone. However, geologists have now discovered traces of a lost continent in the Indian Ocean. Scientists found fragments of granite in the ocean south of India along a shelf that extends hundreds of miles south of the country towards Mauritius. On Mauritius, geologists found zircon despite the fact that the island only came into being 2 million years ago when, thanks to plate tectonics and volcanoes, it slowly rose out of the Indian Ocean as a small landmass. However, the zircon they found there dated to 3 billion years ago, eons before the island had even formed. What this meant, was that the zircon had come from a much older landmass that long ago sunk into the Indian Ocean. Sclater's story about Lemuria was true. Rather than call this discovery Lemuria, geologists named the proposed lost continent Mauritia.

2.2 Additionally there are records of Giants and hybrids living in that land before the continent was sunk because of great evil happening in the continent.

3 Zealandia - a scientifically accepted continent that is now 94% submerged under the Pacific Ocean, surrounding the areas of New Zealand and New Caledonia.

4 Sunken cities in Asia:

4.1 Dwarka – India

4.1.1 Location: The ruins were found beneath the surface of modern-day Dwarka.

4.1.2 Depth: 120 feet

4.1.3 Fallen angel significance: This is the home of the primary vimana designs and worship center for humans to learn the vimana mantras as well as travel and learn to be invisible and so on.

4.1.4 human story: According to folklore, Dwarka is the hometown of Lord Krishna, a place believed to be an old wives tale, a myth, that is until the ruins were discovered 131 feet below the ocean. The ruins were found beneath the surface of modern-day Dwarka. The complexities and the beauty of this city, have baffled even experts.

- 4.1.5 History of the sinking: It was sunk during a large human sacrifice time of over 20,000 deaths in 2 days and at the height of the ritual the city was sunk and many fallen angels trapped with it.

4.2 Yonaguni Jima:

- 4.2.1 location: Yonaguni Jima Japan
- 4.2.2 Depth: 85 feet
- 4.2.3 fallen angel significance: The pyramid connects to the global fallen angel power grid.
- 4.2.4 Human uses: The Yanaguni Monument is Japan's Atlantis. Steeped in mystery and controversy, off the coast of the Ryukyu Islands there lie strangely even shapes which some scientists believe can only be manmade and point to an ancient civilization submerged some 10,000 years ago. A pyramid-shaped structure, an arch, staircases, and other shapes complete with markings that could be ancient script, have reportedly been identified, all hinting to a lost civilization. Others say that the structures are purely naturally-occurring, not unlike the symmetrical basalt columns found in Iceland or on the Giant's Causeway in Northern Ireland. The mystery continues.
- 4.2.5 How it sank: According to records it sank at the height of a big ritual time 10,000 years ago.

4.3 Azores of Portugal.

4.3.1 Location: Portuguese news reported the discovery of a very large under water pyramid first discovered by Diocleciano Silva between the islands of São Miguel and Terceira in the Azores of Portugal.

Depth: According to claims, the structure is said to be perfectly squared and oriented by the cardinal points. Current estimates obtained using GPS digital technology put the height at 60 meters with a base of 8000 square meters. 120 meters underwater.

4.3.2 fallen angel significance: it is part of the global power grid.

4.3.3 Human significance: Still being studied as this is a new find.

4.3.4 How it sank: Not yet known

- 5 As a group of science people who have looked at how God sank each of the cities and locked evil below the water in each city. Each event was local/regional and therefore we believe that when the time is right God will cause a series of localized ground shifts and maybe some water shifting as well, to raise up the sunken cities and release the evil contained in them as well. If we look at the Bible it is God who determines the start time when satan will be able to begin his ruling on earth and it is only for a set time allowed by God himself.
- 6 What things will we see on the earth to know that the time is very near for the rising of the sunken cities:
 - 6.1 First there will be large numbers of geology events shaking and changing the land above the sunken cities.
 - 6.2 Second there will be great evil across all lands because when the sunken cities rise up the evil will be even more than anyone ever expected.
 - 6.3 Third there will be wars and large numbers of dead people and there will be the fallen angels and hybrids going around trying to deceive even the elect.

7 One thing we are ASSURED IS THAT GOD WILL PROTECT HIS REMNANT OF TRUE BELIEVERS.

We hope that you have learned from the places which harbored great evil and how God attended to them as part of their history. Now we will soon see these places rise again bringing with them the evil which was buried long ago.
